11.00h BOWLING FOR COLUMBINE ENGL.m.dt.U.

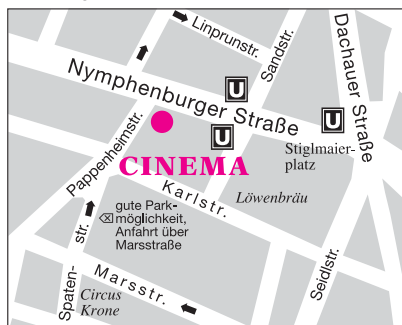

(D: Michael Moore; Cast: Charlton Heston, Marilyn Manson, Matt Stone) With a razor-sharp comedic tone, filmmaker and leftist activist Michael Moore asks some serious questions as he probes the depths of America's trigger-happy gun culture in this volcanically funny and insightful documentary. Moore's look at America's obsession with guns leads him everywhere from Littleton Colorado's Columbine High School to the home of NRA President Charlton Heston.

14.15h THE MATRIX: RELOADED ENGL.

(D: Andy & Larry Wachowski; Cast: Keanu Reeves, Laurence Fishburne, Carrie-Anne Moss) In the second chapter of the »Matrix« trilogy, freedom fighters Neo, Trinity and Morpheus continue to lead the revolt against the Machine Army, unleashing their arsenal of extraordinary skills and weaponry against the systematic forces of repression and exploitation. In their quest to save the human race from extinction, they gain greater insight into the construct of The Matrix and Neo's pivotal role in the fate of mankind. This highly anticipated sequel to the genre-busting, ground-breaking, Academy-Award-winning blockbuster »The Matrix« delivers cutting-edge action, an explosive story, and mind-blowing special effects.

(D: Danny Boyle; Cast: Cillian Murphy, Megan Burns, Naomie Harris) A superior horror thriller by the director of »The Beach«, »Trainspotting« and »Shallow Grave«, about a virus that locks those infected into a permanent state of killing rage, accidentally released from a British research facility. Impossible to contain, the virus spreads across the world in no time. 28 days later, a small group of survivors are trapped in London, caught in a desperate struggle to protect themselves from the infected. An unsettling, creepy experience, complete with very strange sound editing and eerie musical choices that accent the offbeat post-apocalyptic imagery.

09.30h DER PIANIST DEUTSCH

(R: Roman Polanski; D: Adrien Brody, Thomas Kretschmann, Frank Finlay) Auf der erschütternden Autobiographie von Wladyslaw Szpilman beruht dieses beeindruckende Zeitdokument, das in Cannes 2002 mit der Goldenen Palme prämiert wurde. Mit an die Nieren gehender, nüchterner Brutalität werden die schrecklichen Ereignisse um den begnadeten jüdischen Pianisten Szpilman in Warschau geschildert, beginnend mit dem Einmarsch der deutschen Truppen 1939, über die Einsperrung seiner Familie im Warschauer Ghetto, bis hin zu seiner Flucht und dem anschließenden erbitterten Überlebenskampf. Ein höchst beeindruckender Film von dem gebürtigen Polen Roman Polanski, der selbst als Kind das Krakauer Ghetto überlebte und seine Mutter in Auschwitz verlor.

(D: Peter Howitt; Cast: Rowan Atkinson, John Malkovich) This spy comedy with thrills, chills and surprises for the whole family features Rowan Atkinson, the brilliant physical comedian whose outrageous pratfalls and subversively innocent humor have made him a star in hilarious classics such as the worldwide hit «Mr. Bean». When her majesty's crown jewels are stolen by a conniving Frenchman (Malkovich; «Adaptation»), Johnny English (Atkinson), a bit unseasoned but intensely enthusiastic, is thrown onto the case. Fast cars, high tech gadgets, top secret info – Johnny can hardly believe it. He may be in over his head, but his courage and dedication are unmatched – especially after he meets double agent Lorna Campbell and discovers that falling in love makes saving the nation even more exciting.

(D: Tom Shadyac; Cast: Jim Carrey, Morgan Freeman, Jennifer Aniston) Comedy king Jim Carrey (»Liar, Liar«, »The Truman Show«, »Ace Ventura«) stars as Bruce Nolan, a television reporter in Buffalo, New York, who is discontented with almost everything in his life, despite the love of his girlfriend Grace (Aniston). At the end of the worst day in his life, Bruce angrily ridicules and rages against God – and God responds! He appears in human form (Freeman) and, endowing Bruce with all of His divine powers, challenges Bruce to take on the big job and see if he can do it any better. A hilarious comedy with Carrey's trademark facial expressions and outrageous physical comedy that will leave you crying from laughter.

(D: Denzel Washington; Cast: Derek Luke, Joy Bryant, Denzel Washington) Academy Award-winner Denzel Washington's (»Philadelphia«, »Training Day«) directorial debut is based on Antwone Fisher's autobiography »Finding Fish« and tells the touching story of a sailor (Luke) who, prone to violent outbursts, is sent to a naval psychiatrist (Washington) for help. Refusing at first to open up, the young man eventually breaks down and reveals a horrific childhood. Through the guidance of his doctor, he confronts his painful past and begins a quest to find the family he never knew. A solidly crafted, emotionally touching work with excellent and powerful performances.

ANGER MANAGEMENT (Die Wutprobe) ENGL.

(D: Peter Segal; Cast: Adam Sandler, Jack Nicholson, Marisa Tomei) In this riotously funny comedy, Adam Sandler and Jack Nicholson star as patient and therapist, though at times it's hard to tell which one is which... After a misunderstanding aboard an airplane that escalates out of control, the usually mild-mannered, non-confrontational Dave Buznik is reminded to the care of an anger-management therapist, Dr. Buddy Rydell (Nicholson). Buddy's unorthodox approach to therapy is confrontational and abrasive, goading Dave into confronting every slight, past or present, head-on. When Buddy finally goes too far, Dave must decide whether to crawl back into his shell or stand up for himself.

The story revolves around a funeral director, Boris, madly in love with a local woman, Betty, who is married to the town's mayor. As Boris is losing business to a flashy American funeral parlor rival who is determined to revolutionize the undertaking business in Wales through the innovation of 'theme' funerals, the two lovers decide, in a desperate bid for happiness, to stage her death and run away together. While his rival stages his first funeral, much to the surprise of the bereaved, in a Star Trek theme, Boris pursues the plan for faking Betty's death, but nothing goes as planned and so the comedy begins.

Already living in a society that mistrusts them, our mutant heroes are faced with even more discrimination after a mutant assassin launches a devastating attack on the President's life. The news of the assault causes a public outcry against the mutants, resulting in renewed support for the Mutant Registration Act. While a military leader, who is one of the most vocal supporters of the legislation and rumored to have experimented on mutants, begins an offensive on the X-Men mansion, the X-Men band together to find the assassin.

(D: Rob Marshall; Cast: Renee Zellweger, Catherine Zeta-Jones, Richard Gere, Queen Latifah) Set in the roaring 20's, this is the story of chorus girl Roxie Hart (Zellweger), who shoots her lover and lands in jail, where she meets Velma Kelly (Zeta-Jones), the nightclub sensation and murderess, currently enjoying media attention and legal manipulation by her lawyer, Billy Flynn. Soon enough, however, Flynn takes Roxie's case as well, turns her crime of passion into celebrity headlines and in this town, where murder is a form of entertainment, she becomes a bona fide star – much to Velma's chagrin. Awarded with 3 Golden Globes, this magnificent new interpretation takes the classic Broadway show into fresh and expansive cinema realms, adroitly shifting from the reality of intrigue, rivalry and betrayal to spectacular fantasies of music and dance.

(D: Julie Taymor; Cast: Salma Hayek, Alfred Molina, Geoffrey Rush, Ashley Judd, Antonio Banderas) A competent biopic profiling Frida Kahlo, the Mexican surrealist, feminist icon, bon vivant and revolutionary populist. From her complex and enduring relationship with her mentor and husband, Diego Rivera, to her illicit and controversial affair with Leon Trotsky, to her provocative romantic entanglements with women, Frida lived a bold and uncompromising life as a political, artistic and sexual revolutionary. This widely praised film chronicles the life she shared openly and unflinchingly with Rivera, as this young couple took the art world by storm.

(D: George Clooney; Cast: Sam Rockwell, Drew Barrymore, George Clooney, Rutger Hauer, Julia Roberts) George Clooney makes his directorial debut with this frenetic, visually dazzling black comedy, adapted by the daring and mischievous Charlie Kaufman (»Being John Malkovich«, »Adaptation«). The film tells the autobiographical story of the double life of legendary TV producer and showman Chuck Barris, who was recruited by the CIA at the height of his TV career. As his subsequent shows take off, the conflicted producer uses them as a front for his undercover job, chaperoning winning couples all over the world while performing his deadly duties after hours. A daring and impressive work of art with a spot-on performance by Rockwell (»Welcome to Collinwood«, »Heist«), a tremendous, off-beat directorial style, and hilarious cameos that you do not want to miss!

(D: Deepa Mehta; Cast: Rahul Khanna, Lisa Ray, Kulbhushan Kharbanda) In the tradition of Bollywood musicals, this is the story of a son who is reluctant to marry the sort of girl his parents expect him to. After years of being pressured by his family to settle down with a nice Indian girl, dashing young Canadian millionaire Rahul hires a girl he picked up at a bar to pose as his new Indian fiancée, but is he going to actually end up giving his family exactly what they want? A happy, carefree, and fascinating hybrid of a movie where the whimsy is in the mixture – the intoxicating masala – of cultures and film genres.

(D: Chris Koch; Cast: Jason Lee, Julia Stiles, Selma Blair) In this charming romantic comedy, Paul (Lee; »Dream-catcher«) wakes up the morning after his bachelor party in bed with a strange woman (Stiles; »Save the Last Dance«), and he presumes he must have cheated on his fiancée (Blair; »Cruel Intentions«). Guilt leads him to try to cover it up in the week before the wedding... and, of course, high jinks ensue as he discovers that the girl is actually his bride's cousin. Soon his lies are spiraling out of control and his entire life is a series of comical misunderstandings. It's amazing how much can change because of one little thing – a guy thing.

The high-octane, amazing sequel to Marvel's »X-Men«, the hugely popular box-office success which pioneered the current wave of comics-to-film adaptations, reunites the director and the original's key creative team with nearly the entire principal cast. Already living in a society that mistrusts them, our mutant heroes are faced with even more discrimination after a mutant assassin launches a devastating attack on the President's life. The news of the assault causes a public outcry against the mutants, resulting in renewed support for the Mutant Registration Act. While a military leader, who is one of the most vocal supporters of the legislation and rumored to have experimented on mutants, begins an offensive on the X-Men mansion, the X-Men band together to find the assassin.

(D: Ken Loach; Cast: Martin Compston, William Ruane, Annmarie Fulton) The winner of Best Screenplay at the 2002 Cannes Film Festival, this drama is an uncompromising look at life, with all its questionable triumphs and irreversible consequences. In the depressed Scottish town of Greenock, 15-year-old Liam anxiously awaits the release of his mom, Jean, from prison. This time Liam is determined that things will be different. He dreams of a family life he's never had, which means creating a safe haven beyond the reach of losers such as Jean's boyfriend and his own mean-spirited grandfather. His plan for a new life involves raising cash, and it's not before long before Liam and his pals' crazy schemes lead them into all sorts of trouble. A dark, heart-wrenching masterpiece with sensational naturalistic performances and an undeniable raw edge.

(D: Ang Lee; Cast: Eric Bana, Jennifer Connelly, Nick Nolte, Sam Elliott) Acclaimed filmmaker Ang Lee's (»Eat Drink Man Woman«, »Sense and Sensibility«, »Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon«) concept for his film adaption of the classic Marvel Comics series, Hulk, combines all the elements of a blockbuster – visual effects-intensive superhero movie with brooding romance and tragedy of Universal's classic horror films. In depicting Hulk as both a superhero and a monster, Lee has stayed true to the early subversive spirit of the character while completely updating Hulk and projecting it into the dangers and aspirations of contemporary times. This is the tale of Dr. Bruce Banner, whose participation in a lab experiment gone terribly wrong transforms him into the Hulk, a creature of incredible strength, whenever he becomes angry. Turned into a monster of incalculable strength and stamina, Banner goes on the run, chased for hundreds of miles by the military, led by a ruthless general whose daughter he loves.

(D: Steven Soderbergh; Cast: Julia Roberts, David Duchovny, Catherine Keener) Director Steven Soderbergh follows up his highly impressive string of big budget smashes («Erin Brockovich», «Traffic», «Ocean's Eleven») with this unofficial sequel to «Sex, Lies and Videotape», concerning a day in the life of a series of confused, depressed, and neurotic L.A. residents. Linda would love to be loved. Carl loves his wife, Lee. Lee is looking to be loved by Calvin. Calvin plays Nicholas who discovers he's in love with Catherine. Catherine, who is really Francesca, finds true love. And Gus loves himself. Using this dizzying framework to explore the dysfunctional characters who inhabit the entertainment industry, Soderbergh further proves he's still an indie-minded director at heart by incorporating muddy digital video mixed with 35mm film.

SPIDER-MAN ENGL

(D: Sam Raimi; Cast: Tobey Maguire, Kirsten Dunst, Willem Dafoe) After Peter Parker (Maguire), a shy and rather nerdy high school student, is bit by a genetically-altered spider, his body starts to mutate, giving him spider-like, amazing superhero abilities. Adopting the name 'Spider-Man', Peter first uses his new-found powers to make money, but his perception of his powers is soon changed when a megalomaniacal businessman evolves into the Green Goblin, Spider-Man's arch-enemy, who puts young Peter's vow to fight crime and help innocent people to the ultimate test. A whiz-bang, disarmingly entertaining fantasy comic-book adaptation with swinging action scenes, spiffy spider jokes, an unforced earnestness, and a genuine love story at its core.

CHARLIE'S ANGELS - FULL THROTTLE

(3 Engel für Charlie - Volle Power) ENGL.

(D: McG; Cast: Cameron Diaz, Lucy Liu, Drew Barrymore, John Cleese, Matt LeBlanc, Demi Moore) Inspired by the phenomenally popular television series, the sequel to the 2000 blockbuster action-adventure comedy hit »Charlie's Angels« reunites Cameron Diaz, Lucy Liu and Drew Barrymore as the indomitable crime-fighting heroines. In the Angel's new adventure, the captivating trio investigates the theft of a database of witness protection profiles, after five of the people on the list are murdered. Pitted against a 'fallen angel', their old nemesis, the Thin Man, and others, they once again demonstrate their expertise as masters of espionage, martial arts, and disguise. Expect plenty of out-of-this-world action scenes, tongue-in-cheek takes on the genre in general... and bikinis, midriffs, and tight pants.
